JACK GERAGHTY SUED BY WIFE WHO WAS JULIA FRENCH

Society Girl Who Wed Father's Chauffeur Charges Neglect and Cruelty.

ELOPEMENT IN 1911.
One-Time Leader at Newport Reconciled to Family After Marriage.

NEXTPORT, R. I., April 22.—Mrs. Jack Geraghty, who before her marriage to her father's chauffeur was Miss Julia Estelle French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tuck French, to-day filed suit for divorce.

Mrs. Geraghty charges neglect to provide and extreme cruelty. She asks the custody of their six-year-old son, Jack, Jr.

All Newport was stirred when Julia French, a niece of Mrs. Edith French Vanderbilt, ran away on August 9, 1911, with Jack Geraghty, son of a Newport Every stable keeper, and married him at Central Village, Conn. The beginning of the romance had been observed by the French family for some time and the young people had been sternly warned to cease their meetings.

For a year the French family would have nothing to do with young Mrs. Geraghty. The young people lived in Springfield for a time on a farm near Woburn. Geraghty had a brief season of prosperity as an automobile salesman—he was an excellent chauffeur—but later became involved in business difficulties. It was noted in the second year of his married life that he was peddling apples from his Woburn farm in Boston.

The birth of a son to the Geraghys some six years ago caused the family to relent somewhat in its ban against them and they exchanged visits at intervals.

Other vicissitudes in the French family, including the dissolving, as well as the undertaking of the marriage tie, have since then occupied public attention to the exclusion of the Geraghys. The young woman's mother divorced the father in 1914 and Mr. French promptly married again. Her brother, Amos Tuck French Jr., died recently.

POLICE AVIATORS BEGIN FLIGHT TO PHILADELPHIA

Inspector Dyer of Reserves One of the Passengers on Way to Quaker City.

The first long airplane flight ever undertaken by a city police department began this afternoon when two New York police aviators, each carrying a passenger, started from Sheepshead Bay for Philadelphia.

The start was made at 2 o'clock under excellent atmospheric conditions. Twenty minutes later the two machines reached the City Hall, where they circled twice without landing, then turned south. The aviators received letters from the Mayor and other heads of New York in the corresponding offices of Philadelphia. Inspector John F. Dyer of the police reserves was a passenger.

SUNDAY BASEBALL ORDINANCE PASSED; IN EFFECT AT ONCE

Games Next Sunday Likely, as Aldermen Vote Unanimously on Measure.

The Board of Aldermen, by a unanimous vote, to-day adopted an ordinance legalizing the playing of professional baseball after 2 o'clock or Sunday afternoons in New York. The Mayor will sign the ordinance immediately, and the city probably will have major league games next Sunday.

A provision in the ordinance prohibits profiteering by the baseball owners. It directs that neither at the gate nor in the stands may it be charged for admission than is charged on week-days.

The ordinance was adopted under the provisions of a bill passed by the last Legislature making Sunday baseball optional with the municipalities of the State.

TINNEY AND SOLDIER ACTORS HELD AFTER SCRANTON ROW

Captain and Members of Company Threatened by Crowd After Trouble Over Decoration.

(Reported to The Evening World.)

SCRANTON, Pa., April 29.—Charged with inciting to riot, fighting and making threats to Bill, Capt. Frank Tinney, manager of "Atta Boy," which played here last night, was arrested early to-day with six other members of his company and all were locked in cells at Police Headquarters. The other members of the troupe, all former sailors and soldiers, under arrest are: J. R. Dunn, Brooklyn; A. D. Jordan, Detroit; Walter Harris, New York; Edward J. Grant, Sommerville, Mass.; Charles Paul, New York, and John sulphur, Danbury, N. Y.

The "Atta Boy" Company reached Scranton Sunday night. One of them, wearing an army uniform and a Four-square citation, was accused of breaking the citation under false pretense by a former Scranton soldier who tore the citation from the actor-soldier's coat and assaulted him.

Last night twenty-five members of the "Atta Boy" Company searched the city for the man who stole the citation. They picked out Andrew Sullivan, forty, a railroad man. Sullivan was the wrong man if later developed.

After the performance last night Sullivan identified the six actors who assaulted him. A crowd of three hundred persons had gathered when a squad of twenty patrolmen arrived in answer to a 900 call. All six men were rushed to headquarters, the crowd following them.

Capt. Tinney had words with Sullivan and was struck for making threats. He was held behind red bars for an hour before being released on bail. The other six defendants were committed to jail.

Reports received here this morning were that weather conditions over the ocean were favorable, and Capt. Frederick P. Raynham, British aviator, and Harry Hawker, his Australian rival, each had his belongings packed and the wings of his machine preened this morning for flight toward Europe.

For a fortnight the two aviators have been virtually weatherbound here. To-day, simultaneously with the early prospect of excellent conditions at sea, incentive for an immediate start over the untraveled air course of 2,000 miles came with the publication of American airships of the NC type were soon to set out for Newfoundland preparatory to seeking the honors to which Raynham and Hawker aspire.

Sherman told the police at the time of his arrest that he had merely acted like part of the "good scum." Sherman was brought to the station house in Newark and his car impounded by the police.
